

Use this QR code to report behavioural instances for participants who have a behaviour support practitioner / psychologist from Assessable.

For participant name:

www.assessable.com.au

Behaviours of Concern (examples)

Eating non-food items

Food - bingeing (compulsive eating of food / unusual eating habits)

Food - hoarding / stealing

Food - refusal (not wanting to eat)

Harm to self - other (overdose medication, drugs, alcohol)

Harm to self - physical scratching skin, head banging, biting)

Harm to self - suicidal (self harm with suicidal thoughts/ideation)

Harm to self - use of weapons (knives or objects, cutting, burning)

Harm to self - wandering (leaving without support)

Harmful sexual behaviour - others

Harmful sexual behaviour - self

Medicine refusal (not wanting to take medications)

Physical aggression - animals

Physical aggression - others (Any behaviour causing or threatening physical harm towards others. It includes hitting, kicking, biting, using weapons, and breaking toys or other possessions.)

Property damage / destruction (breaking any items)

Verbal aggression (swearing, yelling, threatening statements)

Repetitive or unusual habit (repetitive tasks, movements or habits)

Unintentional self risk (self harm with no intention of dying; burning, scratching, banging)

Withdrawal (isolated, not participating in usual activities)

Only cues of distress observed (agitation, stressed, pacing, spitting, grinding teeth, heavy breathing, brooding, following a person, self talking, repeating demands)